How to Register for a Free Version of the ASE Introduction to Automobile Service E-Learning Program

ASE is offering a free version of the Introduction to Automobile Service E-Learning Program to students affiliated with ASE Accredited Programs. This program consists of four training modules and a separate quiz. If you pass the quiz, you can print your own certificate of completion. Registration is easy and it's free. Here's how to get started.

1. Go to www.asecampus.com and select the link 'Create a profile to make a purchase'.

The screenshot shows the ASE Campus website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for FAQs, Contact Us, ASE, myASE, and ASE Store. Below this is a candidate login section with fields for User Name and Password, and an Enter button. The main content area includes a welcome message, an attention notice for myASE users, and a yellow box with important information about EPA requirements. There are two main program sections: 'ASE Online Refrigerant Recovery and Recycling Program' and 'ASE Introduction to Automobile Service E-Learning Program'. Each section has a list of links for more information. At the bottom, there is a registration prompt: 'Ready to get started? Create a profile to make a purchase'. A red arrow points from a box labeled 'Select here' to this link.
